

Achim Heinfling

Managing Director of AUDI HUNGARIA Zrt.

Achim Heinfling was born in Burgau (Bavaria) on May 6, 1963.

He has been Managing Director of AUDI HUNGARIA Zrt. since October 1, 2017.

After completing his studies of mechanical engineering at the Technical University of Munich, he started his career at Audi in Ingolstadt in 1990. He then held several managerial positions in various departments, including the areas of suspension production, planning and engine production.

Shortly after Audi Hungaria was founded, he successfully supported the development of the new Audi plant in Győr from 1996 until 1998. Between 2007 and 2014, Mr. Heinfling was Director for Engine Production at Audi Hungaria.

In 2014, he returned to AUDI AG in Ingolstadt as Head of Planning Engines/Suspension. In this function, he was also responsible for Audi plants outside Germany.

Achim Heinfling transferred to AUDI HUNGARIA Zrt. and took over the position of Managing Director there with effect as of October 1, 2017.

Achim Heinfling is married.