Peter Mosch was born in Neuburg an der Donau, Germany, on February 15, 1972.

He began training as an industrial mechanic at AUDI AG in 1987 and that same year became a member of the Industriegewerkschaft Metall (IGM) trade union. Following his apprenticeship, Peter Mosch worked as a machinist. From 1993 to 1995, he successfully completed a two-year course to become a foreman with a distinction awarded by the Bavarian Government.

Peter Mosch worked as a foreman in the toolmaking shop in 1995. In 1997, he transferred to assembly line maintenance at Audi, where he worked until 1998.

Peter Mosch first became involved in the Works Council at AUDI AG in 1990. He was initially Chairman of Youth and Trainee Representation (JAV) from 1994 to 1998 and has been a member of the Works Council since 1998, Chairman of the Works Council of AUDI AG, Ingolstadt plant, and Chairman of the General Works Council of AUDI AG since 2006. Since that time, Peter Mosch has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Group Global Works Council of Volkswagen AG. Since 2018 Mosch has been the Vice Chairman of the Group Works Council of Volkswagen AG.

Peter Mosch was elected to the Supervisory Board of AUDI AG in 2001. He has been a member of the Presiding Committee of this body since 2006. Since 2018 he has been the Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board of AUDI AG.

Peter Mosch has also been a member of the Supervisory Board of Volkswagen AG since 2006. Within this body, he was Deputy Chairman of the Audit Committee from 2013 to 2017. Mosch has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Volkswagen Supervisory Board since 2017. He was also a member of the Supervisory Board of Porsche Automobil Holding SE from 2009 to 2017 and was elected to the Standing Committee of this body in 2017.

Alongside his professional commitments, involvement in social issues is a top priority for Peter Mosch. As well as performing voluntary roles in the community and trade union field, he has also served among other things on the Board of Management of the Audi Selbsthilfeeinrichtungen (Audi Self-help Organizations) since 2001.
